O. L. Scantland's last Saturday.
The ladies finished three beautiful quilts and prepared a most excellent dinner. The men done a lot of work on changing the road, which is a big improvement. The day was very beneficial to all.

But a good wheeze-
I'll leave it to you

I LOVE the ladies.

BUT LIKE most men.

I OFTEN guess wrong.

ON WHAT will win.

A SMILE from them.

I ALWAYS say.

IT'S BETTER to laugh.

THAN EVER to worry.

SO ONCE, when.

THE DAM broke, and.

A FLOOD hit town.

I THOUGHT I'd just.

CHEER UP my wife.

AND SO I said.

"IF THE worst comes.

YOU CAN float down.

THE RIVER on.

THE FAMILY music-box.

AND I'LL accompany you.

ON THE piano."

WHICH WAS all wrong.

POOR HUMOR, she said.

WAS OUT of place.

IN TIME of danger.

SO KIPLING was right.

"A WOMAN is only.

A WOMAN, but a good cigar.

IS A smoke," only.

HE SHOULD have made it.

MY CIGARETTES because.

YOU'RE BOUND to get.

A SMILE from them.

THEY ALWAYS "satisfy."

TAKE the silky, tender leaves of choicest Turkish; blend them with the best Domestic tobacco that money can buy—blend them in the exclusive,
can't-be-copied Chesterfield way—and you get a "smoke." Yes, and something more—you get a cigarette that honestly "satisfies."
